

Appreciative Intro...

Human Dignity and Humiliation Studies

(Please complete the information below)

Ljoba Jenč

Singer, storyteller, collector of oral tradition, director of Pajm Institute for Sustainable Living-Heritage House, Slovenia

70 c DOLENJA VAS
SI-1380 CERKNICA
SLOVENIA- EU

M: +386 41 430 224

E: ljoba.jence@guest.arnes.si

www.hisaizrocila.si

Areas of Interest

Intangible Cultural Heritage

documenting and safeguarding

Transmission of ICH to young generation

Human voice as an instrument of the Soul

Storytelling revival

What would you like to get out of this gathering?

Good network of workers for human dignity and encouraging results of researchers, cultural activists - empowerment for the safeguarding of human rights and cultural diversities.

What would you like to contribute to this gathering?

Good practices and results of deeper understanding of ecological thinking of local people and results of my awareness how to create dignity within my own culture, language, with open windows towards learning better practices and different cultures around the world.

Dignity belongs to our inner world, to the soul, but it is not given, it is absolved in a relation with “the other” and shines as an awareness of the mind, when we know how to responsibly deal with life, our decisions, we stand for our rights also on the outside. Assimilation of values is not only as our cognitive recognition which means that human being is a space of choice – freedom and freedom to choose and decide is a treasure of a longlasting evolution we need to safeguard as a pearl in our hearts.

Thank You!