

Dignilogue on Forgiveness, Dignity and Conflict Transformation

Facilitated by Lyndon Harris

This dignilogue will explore the role the healing power of forgiveness can play in transforming conflict and restoring dignity. This session will examine what forgiveness is and is not, and how it might bring healing to communities and generations. Lyndon's work is based on, and in collaboration with, Dr. Frederic Luskin, co-founder of the Stanford Forgiveness Project.

ZOOM Meeting ID: 874 3049 9495

Passcode: forgive

One tap mobile phone

+13126266799,,87430499495#,,,,,0#,,7229516# US (Chicago)

+19292056099,,87430499495#,,,,,0#,,7229516# US (New York)

Dial by your location

+1 312 626 6799 US (Chicago)

+1 929 205 6099 US (New York)

+1 301 715 8592 US (Washington D.C)

+1 346 248 7799 US (Houston)

+1 669 900 6833 US (San Jose)

+1 253 215 8782 US (Tacoma)

BIO:

Lyndon Harris is also a forgiveness coach, and an inspirational and motivational speaker, having spoken at numerous conferences across the United States and around the world. He served more than 20 years as a pastor and his work at Ground Zero as priest-in-charge of Saint Paul's Chapel (located directly across from the World Trade Center in New York City) has been written about widely, including the NY Times, The Washington Post and The Christian Science Monitor. His work in forgiveness is featured in the award-winning documentary, "The Power of Forgiveness" (Journey Films 2006). Harris is teaming up with Stanford's Dr. Frederic Luskin to develop a workbook on forgiveness to support people looking for resilience in recovery. For more information, Lyndon can be reached at lyndonfharris@gmail.com, or through www.lyndonharris.com.